1. Early during the evenings of 19 and 22 September 1949 air raid alerts were sounded in Tsingtao.
2. The Communist Tsingtao Military Control Commission is occupying the former US naval barracks in Tsingtao, which are excellent bombing targets.
3. WANG Hsu-yuan, assistant manager of China Textile Industries Incorporated (CTII), is the only Tsingtao representative to the Chinese People's Political Consultative Conference (CPPC), Peiping. In common with all representatives, he was appointed by the central military commission.
4. CTII has 7,000 tons of coal on hand in Tsingtao, and the Tsingtao power plant has 5,000 tons. Because coal stocks are coming in to Tsingtao from Poshan and Chinchuangtao, they are not worried about future supplies, and CTII has cancelled its plan to obtain coal via Dairen*. Government firms do not pay for coal but pay only very low freight charges for its transport from Poshan.
5. The Tsingtao power plant, which has a daily capacity of 840,000 kilowatt hours (KWH), averaged 350,000 KWH a day before the Communists occupied Tsingtao and has averaged 260,000 KWH a day since.
